J. E. Burgher, Publisher.

VOL. 9.

CLAY CITY, KY., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1904.

NO. 43.

AYLESWORTH, I. T., Oct. 20, 1904.

Mr. J. E. Burgher, Dear Friend and Brother:—It has been some time since I have written you, but would write often though I get the TIMES and it's like getting a letter from home and more so as it comes so regularly.

We are still well pleased with our Western home. My little boys have raised 16 bales of cotton that will average $50 per bale. They also raised 800 bushels of corn and sold at 40 cents per bushel. The oldest boy is 13 and the youngest 9 years old.

Find inclosed $1.00 please send the TIMES and Courier-Journal for one year and oblige.

Your friend as ever,
FRANK EDWARDS.

Country the Best.

Many a farmer who has retired and settled in some village, town or city, is winding up his days in home-sickness and isolation. He finds the city a closed book so far as genial companionship and pleasant living are concerned, and in most cases the retired farmers are downright unhappy in their new surrounding. For good old hospitality commend us to the country with its plain living on the salt of the earth.—Winchester Democrat.

New Railroad.

A press dispatch says according to reports received here, a new railroad will soon be built through the mountains, beginning at either Paintsville or Prestonsburg, then to Salyersville, Lee City, Hazel Green and Frenchburg to Mt. Sterling. L. C. May, of Chicago, formerly of Magoffin county, is at the head of the project, and has organized a company with $5,000,000. This road will open up a vast agricultural, milling and mining country. Surveying will begin this week.

Daniel-Tipton.

Mr. D. R. Daniel, of this city, and Miss Tett Tipton were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. A. Tipton, near Stanton, Thursday, Oct. 20, at 6 p. m., the Eld. J. A. Webb officiating. The happy pair returned to the groom's home in this city soon after the ceremony where they will reside.

Kentucky looks to western Kentucky to do her full duty and western Kentucky sends greeting to eastern Kentucky to do likewise. With all sections of Kentucky doing their full duty, Kentucky will lead the van of Democratic states—but let not one Democrat abstain from voting for the democratic ticket as the Rooster indicates it.—Owensboro Messenger.

An exchange says: the most novel campaign on record is being conducted by Hopkins and Blakey, candidates for Congress in the Tenth District. They travel, eat and sleep together and speak for the same platform. This is not the first time a campaign of this kind has been prosecuted in this district. When Congressman Marcus Lyle died in office Judge Beckner was nominated for the vacancy by the Democrats and John Bosley by the Republicans, and their canvass was similar to the one now being conducted by Hopkins and Blakey.

The lights of the town are being improved by the line being thoroughly overhauled. The line will run over the new graded railroad crossing, instead of where the old crossing was.

Can You Eat.

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christian, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefitted me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by M. Rose.

Newspaper Influence.

The influence of newspaper advertising is wonderful. It makes small stores great. It turns the tide of business toward the advertised store as nothing else will. It places the name of the store so strongly in the minds of the people that they cannot think of dry goods, clothing, shoes or drugs without the name of that advertised store coming into minds simultaneously. By a good, persistent advertising campaign any business house can push its way to the front. The very best medium to use in your community is your local paper, as it goes to the people when their minds are easily impressed.

Bayan, the Real Leader.

No man, since Henry Clay fascinated the country with his oratory and charmed them with his personality, has approached William Jennings Bryan in the affections of the masses of the people.
After all he is the real leader.
Thousands hang upon his words.
Wherever he goes he is the idol of those who love a clean, strong man, with the courage of a lion and the ability to justify his claims to leadership. His manliness, his fairness, his equable temper, his clean mind and inspired tongue appeals to them.
His influence today is greater than it has ever been.

It must be gratifying to him, as it is to his free-silver followers, to find those who knifed him in 1896 and 1900 leaning upon his broad shoulders today. It shows the character of the man in the resolute nature, the forgiving heart that puts party above personal revenge. He does not lack the spirit to fight back. A braver character never rose in America public life. But his party needs him. And he has answered that call for help with all the energy of his indomitable will.
He has put private griefs aside and has enlisted in a war that means, whatever fortune may attend it, the unification of a party he loves.

All honor to Mr. Bryan. He has shamed his detractors. He has proved his right to the title to the great Commoner. Whatever his future may be he stands today the most attractive, persasive and dominant figure in National affairs.

There has never been a Campaign freer from personal slander and vituperation than this one. Judge Parker set the example by his urgent insistence that no word of reflection against the character of President Roosevelt should be printed in the official text-book. Of course the partisan newspapers on both sides are predicting that the country will go to the devil in a hand-basket unless their particular choice is elected, but the candidates themselves are conducting the Campaign on the highest possible plane. It is a great gain for sanity and decency.

Four, and eight years ago every railroad, bank and corporation in the state was predicting eternal disaster if Bryan were elected, and incidentally dropping heavy contributions into the Republican Corruption Fund. This year they are out of politics.
Whatever the reason may be it means more Democratic Votes, and while we got along very well without them in 1900 there is no need of borrowing trouble.

Mail sent to Democratic county chairman in Indiana has been held up and in some cases rilled.

many wide-awake physicians, who appreciate its value in treating the sick.

If you are sick, we offer you a way to be made well—Dr. Miles' Nervine.

This medicine is a scientific cure for nervous disorders, such as Neuralgia, Headache, Loss of Memory, Sleeplessness, Spasms, Backache, St. Vitus' Dance, Epilepsy or Fits, Nervous Prostration, etc.

By toning up the nerves, Dr. Miles'

Some of these are: Indigestion, Bilious Headache, Kidney Trouble, Chronic Constipation, Dropsy, Catarrh, Rheuma-

ON THE INCREASE.

World's Fair Travel
Getting Heavier.

While the volume of travel to St. Louis on account of the World's Fair has not quite come up to the expectations of the World's Fair management, or the railroad's it has been as large as was expected, all things considered.

The banner months, so far as attendance is concerned, will be September, October and November, and during these three months the admission will undoubtedly equal, if not surpass, the entire number registered up to August 31st inclusive.

It is certainly a big, grand show and one that no person with the means should miss. It is the opportunity of a life time in an educational way and one that will be taken advantage of by the great majority of the people of America before its close. It is an attraction that all Americans are proud of, and justly so.

On account of its unexcelled train service, both as regards equipment and accommodations, the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway, better known as the Henderson Route, has carried the majority of Kentuckians to St. Louis and have beyond a doubt been more instrumental in contributing to the success of the Fair than any other railroad in this territory.

The Henderson Route is justly entitled to all the praise that is being showered on them, as their train service is unquestionably the finest operated in or out of Kentucky, and their schedule of trains is more nearly maintained than on the majority of roads.

For comfort in travel and for the best accommodations safest train schedules there's but one thing to at all times keep in mind—get the Henderson Route habit—and request this routing in purchasing your tickets.

THE NEW IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

For November

From an article on "Evening Dresses" in the NEW IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE for November, it appears that dinner and reception gowns especially are to be very elaborate this season, following the general trend of fashion. A number of pretty cuts also show the latest designs in the ubiquitous "stock". "Perdita" continues her little solutions in household economies, this month setting forth her idea of how the best can be got out of a $1,500 income when living in a New York apartment house; and several columns are devoted to definite directions for preparing each item of the Thanksgiving dinner, from the turkey stuffing to the pumpkin pie. There are two short stories of Cupid's cases, one centered in a New artist's studio and the other in a shrewd, good little country widow's parlor. Some views illustrating "A Bit of Holland in the Tropics" show a very attractive side Curaçao in the Dutch West Indies, and a review that brings back tender memories is that of Jennette Young on "Your Childhood's Garden". Articles on Child Development, Business Life, Flower Culture, Social Settlements, etc., etc., make up a very readable number.
